Lewis and Clark Tiger

Lewis and Clark High School

Spokane, Washington

Ninth Annual Edition

Edited and Published by Staff Members From the Year's Graduating Classes

Advisers:

MIRIAM MORGAN, Art

CARL G. MILLER, Editorial and Business

“And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave o’er the land of the free and the home of the brave!”

Many students cannot afford to travel widely, so pictures afford a no-expense tour of world wonders. Shown here is a photograph depicting the ruins of the classic Corinthian temple of Jupiter Olympus, located in Italy. Hung near the northeast corner of the third floor, it is one of the many famous pictures in the Lewis and Clark art collection.

Wearing glasses for the first time in a Tiger picture, Principal A. L. Parker stands before the newest record case in the office. He is completing his ninth year as head of Lewis and Clark.

This picture hardly does justice to the likeable personality of the school's vice principal, William W. Taylor. A pleasant smile usually lightens his face while he carries out his duties.

Mrs. Charlotte Jones this year took the place of Miss Bernadine McClincy, girls' adviser, who is undertaking further studies at Columbia University.

English Department

About one-third of Lewis and Clark's faculty is in the English department, headed by Marian Pettis, and shown in the teachers' lounge. Absent are Carl G. Miller and Douglas Babcock.

First row: Louise Bruning, George Palmer, Mrs. Frances Vecchio, Phillip Baird, Mrs. Grace Bartlett, Ann Reely.

Second row: Florence Wager, Art Walther, Marian Pettis, Mrs. Joyce Wickline, E. E. McElvain, Mrs. Lois Knox.

Math and Science Departments

The Mathematics department is made up of six teachers headed by Fred Kramlich; and L. G. Minard heads LC's seven science teachers. Not appearing in the picture are Mrs. Hilda Tollefson, mathematics teacher, and Charles Canup, science teacher.

First row: Fred Kramlich, John Wuhrman, Christian Claussen, R. C. Anderson, L. G. Minard.

Second row: H. P. Aldrich, Blanche Smith, Clarence Miller, H. M. Louderback, Gene Arger.

Home Economics - Industrial Arts - Study Hall Depts.

First Row: W. J. Dunlop, Ann Cunningham, Gerald Meckelson, Mrs. Edith Collins.

Second Row: Mrs. Ruth Anderson, Averil Fouts, Gracia White, Helen Daigle, Robert Bartlett.

Commercial - Physical Education - Librarians

E. L. Hunter, boys' P. E.; Virginia Danke, girls' P. E.; and C. E. Baten, commercial, are heads of the departments grouped here in room 104. Absent is Doris Popple.

Social Studies Department

Dan Whitman is head of the Social Studies department, which is composed of 11 teachers. Absent from the photograph is Norman Perring.

First Row: Carl Anderson, Louis Livingston, Katherine Hunt, Dan Whitman, Eugene Sivertson.

Second Row: W. B. Graham, H. D. Thompson, E. W. Toevs, Art Frey, Max Schoening.

Fine Arts - Language - Music - Administrative Depts.

Heads of the various groups shown in Principal Parker's office are Lydia Goos, Art department; Mabel Pope, Foreign Language department; C. Oliver Fuller, Music department; and A. L. Parker, administrative department.

First Row: Lydia Goos, Miriam Morgan, A. L. Parker, Mable Pope.

Second Row: William Taylor, C. Oliver Fuller, Mrs. Charlotte Jones, Mrs. Lillian Charbonneau, R. G. Ferrer, Marguerite Cross, and Paul Fosso.

L. 1—Leaders of senior activities for the first semester are show here. Seated at the table are: Ronnie Gordon, 12A president, and Howie Schmidt, 12B president. Standing left to right: Ken Brown, Neil Caudill, Darrell Lee, Phil Leigh, Howard Lampson, Sharon Johnson, Mark Sanders and Jack Spring. L. 2—Final candidates for Trophy king and queen pose with Tidwell, the main character in the first successful date dance held by the A.S.B. in years. Seated are: Bob Stobie and Larry Chestnut. Behind them are: Marilyn Davenport, Barry Jones, and Pat Cauvell. L. 3—The question of the year for Forensic members is presented here by the debaters. Left to right are: Ritchie Ocheltree, Ruth Newmiller, Cam Kirkham, Helen Mann, Ivan Sills, Janet Haltom, Marilyn Findley and Jim Minard. Seated are Margaret Hamilton and Carolyn Chaney. R. 1—Principal Parker proudly congratulates the two scholars of the January class, Corrine Johnson, first honor, and Bob Schimke, second honor. R. 2—Pictured at the 12A class dinner are Mr. Parker, Ronnie Gordon, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Perring, and Mr. Taylor who all seem to be enjoying themselves. R. 3—Look what a new loud shirt did for John Holum! Here he is with two of his female admirers, Bee Smart and Glenmar Hoke.

1950 Kitten Horsehidors Finish Fourth

The 1950 Kittens placed fourth in the city frosh league of five teams with a record of three wins and six losses. Although the season wasn't too successful, Coach Max Schoening developed a few promising players for future varsity work. Outstanding were Larry Chestnut, outfielder; Jim Cluckey, catcher; Jack Binns, infielder; and Leo Murphy, pitcher with a 2-4 record.

Third Row: Jack Binns, Jim Cluckey, Don Chatfield, Bob Olson, Paul Cooper, Larry Chestnut.

B-Squaders Are 1950 City Champions

The 1950 version of the Lewis and Clark B squad, coached by Bob Bartlett, rounded out their league season with the City Championship under their belts. The Tigers had extended a winning streak to 15 straight games until, ironically enough, they were defeated on the final contest of the season. Although all squad members were stellar performers, there were a few standouts. The "Big Guns" of the outfit were Gary Colgren, slugging third sacker; Leo Perras, second base and base stealer deluxe; Bob Gifford, shortstop; "Lefty" Crain, first base; and Roger Strawick, center fielder.

Third Row: Don Rush, Bruce Miller, Wayne Demaray, Roger Strawick.

1950 Track Squad Places Third

The varsity track squad under the coaching of Art Frey finished the season with one win and three losses, all the losses being close. Despite injuries to ace members of the squad, the boys finished third in the All-City meet with seven men going to the district meet and three advancing into the state meet. The strong events of the team were the 440 headed by Jones, the half mile headed by B. Olsen and McNally, and the high jump with three leaders, Senna, Marks, and Steiner.

First Row: David Clack, Mgr., Bud Stobie, Bob Slattery, Marvin Peterson, Mgr., Don Murray, John Bernham, Roger McLaughlin, Mgr.

BOB McNALLY, track star, was wounded in the line of duty while serving in the Marine Reserves on the Korean battlefield. Bob was called to active duty during the summer of 1950, soon after the outbreak of the conflict. He was to have graduated in January of 1951. All his friends praise him highly for his war record.

Frosh Trackmen Place Third

The freshman track squad of 1950 finished the season with a first, second and third in three meets and ended second to Rogers frosh in the All-City meet 30-29½.

First Row: Bob Hargreaves, Dick Smith, John Gilkey, Robert Murphy, Leo Murphy, Tom Mason.

Second Row: Jeff White, Bill Brian, George Couchman.

Absentees: Bob Baldwin, Ed Behrens, David Hood.

TIGER HARRIERS: Coached by Art Frey and led by such outstanding runners as George Couchman, Barry Jones, and Gordon Ruehl, the 1950 team placed second in league competition.

First Row: John Bernham, Pete Silvernale, John Poston, Merlyn Omans, Bob Taylor.

Second Row: John Gilkey, Mgr., Bob MacLean, Reed Penning, Bob Slattery, Ray Hunter, Ted Allen, Coach Art Frey.

Third Row: Barry Jones, Gordon Ruehl, Joe Berglund, George Couchman, Bob Powers, Bill Bryan.

Kittens in Three Way Tie

The only football champions produced this year were the 1950 Kittens, coached by Skip Louderback. With a record of three wins and one loss, the Kittens ended in a three way tie with North Central and Gonzaga. Led by Don Lundstrom and Art Jones, they rolled to easy victories after a slow start. Skip proclaimed them all outstanding players.

Second Row: Mickey Smith, Tom Nau, Don Lundstrom, Gary Spafford,

Bob Stobie, Frank Zohnmiser, Dave Shiedon, Leo Leonard, Dewayne Allen, Chuck Quinn.

Bengals Place Fourth

The 1950 Bengal football squad finished in fourth place with a win-lose record of 1-5. For their last game of the season the squad traveled to Kelso and gave them a battle before being downed 27-13.

First Row: Dave Daggett, Ron Swenson, Dick Fanning, Keith Swenson, Duane Tye, John Plastino.

1.—Dave Daggett breaks thru the line to block an N.C. kick. Identifiable L.C. players are Ron Swenson (45), Dan Kaiser (31), Parker Compau (59), and Gordon Peery (35). 2.—Gene Gadau (57) and an unidentifiable, mud splattered LCite, prepare to lay low an N.C. back after a long gain. 3.—Skip Hunting, Gonzaga back, is brought down after being surrounded by most of the Bengal line. LCites are John Plastino (34) Dan Thompson (32), Roger Wyatt (29), Bud Stobie (40), and Dave Daggett eluding a would-be blocker. 4. R—Plastino goes high into the air to snag a pass while being guarded closely by N.C.'s Glen Meinke (4). 5.—Quarterback Bill Farr goes thru the Bullpup line for six points while Plastino (34) takes life easy on the ground.

1.—Fierce action shows Roger Strawick tackling Bill Langdon, N.C. back. 2.—Don Brown is smothered by a host of L.C. tacklers among whom are Roger Strawick, Gordon Peery, and Parker Compau. L.C. players identifiable by number are Gene Gadau (57), Don Thompson (32), Dan Kaiser (31), and Bruce Mauser (58). 3.—Bouchee (36) scores against champion Rogers team. 4.—Dave Daggett (44) is hit by three N.C. defensive men after a short gain. In the background can be seen John Chamberlain (36), Neil Caudill (partially hidden), John Plastino (34), Keith Swenson (37), and Stan Marks (63).

Bengal Hoopsters Place Second

Entering the city league with an impressive pre-season record of 10-0, the 1951 Tigers finished second after losing two close games to a fighting band of N.C. Indians. The L.C. attacks were led by Ed Bouchee, who placed on the first All-City team and John Halin and Jack Spring, who both placed on the second All-City team.

First Row: Ed Bouchee, Don Robinson, John Halin, Jack Spring, Bob Morris.

Bengal B's Tie for First

Tigerville's only championship in basketball was brought home by the B squad as they tied for first. Showing much promise for next year were Paul Perko, Frank Werner, and Bill Parker.

First Row: Ken Sandburg, Paul Perko, Frank Werner, Bill Parker, Bob Murphy.

Second Row: Tim Hay, Corky Dickerson, Jack Baldwin, Jim Whittemore, Gene Foedisch, Bob Gifford.

1.—Jack Springs goes high into the air with two Rogers Pirates after a rebound off the L.C. boards. Looking on are Halin and Bouchee with Robinson coming in fast on the play. 2.—Spring starts his dribble around Flemming of N.C. to go all the way for a basket. Halin comes up for a block. 3.—Perko and Morris team up to take an L.C. rebound while Hetherington looks on in surprise.

1.—Halin attempts to block a shot by Bostrum while Morris, Bouchee, and Robinson watch. 2.—Bouchee drives in for a two pointer around Paulson of Rogers as Spring goes around for a possible rebound. 3.—Halin swipes the ball from two Rogers men as Bouchee and Morris get set for a wild ball.

Basketball's Big Five

BOBBY MORRIS—As a newcomer to the varsity he showed that he could keep up with the rest and in doing so he made himself an all-important position on next year's team.

JOHN HALIN—Big John played consistent ball all season at the center position by taking rebounds and canning points with his hook shot from the center of the key.

JACK SPRING—Lefty Spring took his share of honors by placing on the ED BOUCHEE—Another player from the portside was the cool and unrattled Bouchee as he took rebounds, made a good percentage of his shots, and guided the Tiger offense and defense. With this kind of play he placed on the All-City first team.

DON ROBINSON—Sugar made the squad complete as he furnished the needed additional height and deadly long two-handed set shots.

Kittens Tie for Last

The 1951 Kittens, playing off and on ball during the season, placed way down on the hoop league ladder but brought in the lime-light a few outstanding players as Art James, Henry Upton, and Don Lundstrom, for Squinty's future varsity squads.

First Row: Frank Lord, Dick Geist, Henry Upton, Don Lundstrom, Art James.

Second Row: Chuck Quinn, Jack Gation, Larry English, Dick Beck, George Couchman, Leo Leonard.

1950 Netsters Place Third

Rainy weather plus talent cut to a minimum proved fatal to the 1950 tennis squad, as they finished behind North Central and Rogers.

First Row: Bob Quaife, Joe Clumpner, Gene Huppiner.

Second Row: Phil Leigh, Bob Schimke, Lawrence Grossman.

Boys' Golf

The boys' golf squad played consistently during the spring and fall seasons but failed to capture a championship.

First Row: Bob Randall, Bruce White, Fred Rowher.

Girl Golfers Finish Second

The girls' golf squad, coached by Miss Virginia Danke, finished the season in second place behind North Central.

Second Row: Sharon Van Dorn, Charlene Erwin, Beverly Burns, Carol Cunningham, Jane Noble, Sue Gleason, Lois Adair.

Girls' Badminton

While playing West Valley, Central Valley, and Cheney during the 1951 season the girls' badminton team came out undefeated, led by Eve Nolan, Carol Rouse, Joy Thrailkill, and Freshman Sally True. This team journeyed to Seattle in March for the Pacific Northwest Tournament where Eve and Sally captured the girls' doubles title, and were runners up in the mixed doubles. In the city junior tournament, Eve captured the girls' singles with Carol as runner-up.

First row: Sally True, Ann Dunton, Judy Holtum, Getchan Weed, Janet McNair, Carol Rouse, Janis Scott.

Second row: Elaine Reed, Betty Brainard, Barbara Beeman, Joy Thrailkill, Barbara Probert, Carol Christian, Grace Kelm, Ruthie Sumihiro.

Girls' Tennis Team Takes Second

The 1950 girls' tennis team, led by Gail Hollister and Eve Nolan and coached by Miss Doris Popple, finished second in city league play with a record of three wins and one loss.

First Row: Barbra Betts, Barbara Probert, Carol Rouse, Susan Betts, Peggy McMahon, LeAnn Jones, Margie De Vorss.

Second Row: Betty Brainard, Sharon Blackwell, Marlene Clem, Miep Van Tyne, Joy Thrailkill, Judy Haltom, Barbra Beeman.

Third Row: Helen Hayes, Judy Baily, Lorry Allgaier, Eve Nolan, Gail Hollister, Barbra Knight, Carol Godfrey, Carol Christian.

The Will of the January Class of 1951

We, the so-called students of the January class of 1951, being of unsound mind and doubtful body, hoping to rid ourselves of a few stray items, do now gladly and generously submit this, our last will and testament. Consult your lawyer in case of breaches of promise or sudden deaths resulting from it.

Phil Dodd bequeaths his ability to pull crank cases to Louie Ellingson. Dan Kaiser leaves his magnetic personality to Stan Marks. Corrine Johnson passes on some long hair to Gretchen Weed. James Keith leaves all the cigar butts on Main to J. O. Smith. Marilu Doll turns all of John Chamberlin's dates over to Jane Anderson. Bill Ingraham wills his brains to Ken and Keith Erickson. Betty Duncan leaves the way John Keller looks down his nose at her to anybody who can get him to say 'hi.' Gene Huppin wills a certain North Central blonde to Stan Silberman.

Peroxide to Irvine

Bob MacLean offers his 'way' with the fair sex to John Chamberlin. Lyla Elfring bequeaths her bottle of peroxide to Roberta Irvine. Stanley Crosby receives Mr. Graham's history class from Maxine Mathewson. Gail Hollister wishes Eve Nolan and Judy Bailey to have the use of her lousy tennis playing. Ann Livingston wills some of her hair to Janet Yarwood. Jimmie Brock receives six inches of height from Lois Hill in hopes that she can use them. Phil Leigh wants to give Cora Dee Peterson all of his physics papers and hopes that Mr. Minard will not mind. Florence Hill wills her naturally curly hair to Joyce Craig. Darrell Lee donates his four year old J. S. to Stan Marks. Ronnie Hendricksen leaves all Marycliff girls but one to Jack Baldwin and Roger Dickerson.

Lynn Young turns her interests in Wa-Hi over to Jo Anne Kennedy and Sylvia Hagen. Lois Womach leaves some gorilla legs to Beverly Womach. Janis Gemmill receives Leila Blume's ability to tell good jokes. Harry Tanaka wishes Bill Farris to have his good seat at Rathdrum. Pat Cauvel offers a North Central boy friend to her sister, Gwen. In payment for injuries received, Bud Stobie leaves his right leg to Don Curran, (G.H.S.) Laura Leath gives her seat in Mr. Livingston's American history class to Muriel Egan. Sally Sowell wills her beat up baton to Carolyn Gale.

Barbara Chase bequeaths Rainbow Inn to Jack Firestone.

Great Brain to Lloyd

Eddie Simmons leaves his study habits to Keith Swenson. Phil Sandberg turns the use of his great brain over to Doug Lloyd. Patsy Carman gives the many shorthand struggles to Elaine Howard. Jack Luenow receives one combination can and bottle opener from Joe Sampson. Chester Bray gives his seven years at Lewis and Clark to the faculty. Christine Runkel wishes Miss Pope and Spanish IV to have Holly Lasley. Ken Brown has the ability to get what he wants and he wishes Jim McKay to have this quality. Marcia Robertson offers Bill Farr her many enjoyable nights at the Public Library. Dorothy Benson wills her A's in American history to Gayla Ayers. Zelores Johnson gives his putmobile to J. O. Smith. Jerry Porter wishes Wayne Stoddard to have his ability to make girls fall for him. Barbara Barksdale leaves Jo Anne Kennedy some blonde hair.

Louise Place leaves her typing eraser to Lena Lyson. Gerald Andrews wishes Tom Haggerty to have his compatibility with Miss Pettis. John Peters bequeaths his Buick to Bob Griffin. Dale Nelson is left a certain D. D. by Carl Anderson. Caryle Pence wills Bud Stobie the story of a lumberman to Lorry Allgaier and Peggy Smith. Mary Turner donates her mirror to Mary Otness and Eleanor Gies. Neil Caudill wishes Bob Bartlett to have all the aches and pains of football. Toshi Yonago gives his third floor proctor post to some ambitious freshman capable of being very good to Mrs. Collins. Bob Schimke turns over to Eve Nolan the tennis racket autographing business. Joe Clumpner donates his tennis ability to Don Murray.

Wills Her Admiration

Julie Chilton wills her admiration for Mr. Graham to Louise Holeman. Bruce Mauser leaves Betty Bock to Mike VaFiade. Marilyn Cockrell wills her hours in the bookroom to some ambitious freshman. Pat McCullough offers his driving ability to Mickey Moore. Norma Fendler leaves Roland Edens for Cora Dee Peterson. Gretchen Winkler leaves her mornings at the Pacific to Do-Do Castle. Jacqy McInnis gives her ability to recognize faces to Jody Sutor. Dale Harshbarger receives some midnight oil from Dennis Gillis. Ray Mewes offers one bike seat to Don Semp-

Prophecy of the January Class of 1951

The twenty-fifth reunion of the January class of 1950 was the most outstanding ever to be held by any class of Lewis and Clark. Leila Blume, chairman of the reunion committee, spent the last year contacting all of the wide-spread members. To Leila and the members of her committee, Marilu Doll, Pat Cauvel, and Ann Livingston, goes all the credit for such a memorable occasion.

One of the Chronicle's well-known columnists, Jacqy McInnis, was there. Jacqy's "Advice to the Lovelorn" is one of the paper's most popular columns. With Jacqy was her long-time companion, Betty Oster, who just got back from Arabia where she owns the largest camel market in the country. Don Hart and Bruce Mauser, head and assistant bartender at the Tia Juana Inn, offered free samples of their merchandise to any one who wanted to drop in afterwards. Naomi "Crazy Trader" Newmiller has the largest used-car lot in Spokane for convertibles and they say she sells only red ones. Joe Sampson is the new janitor at Holy Names high school but he said his sideline is making root beer in the bathtub. Many of the alumni were planning to meet afterwards down at Pat Hanson's new cafe for some of her famous foot-long Coney Islands. Many members were sorry to hear that Nancy Murrow couldn't be there as she was baby-sitting for Marilu and John Chamberlain. They say the twelve little ones keep one pretty busy. Needless to say Marilu Doll is spending her days being an ever-loving wife and mother.

Peters Returns From the South

John Peters recently returned from the South Pole on his newest business deal, trying to sell bow ties to penguins. They say the trip was a total flop. Bob Griffin took a few hours off from his busy exterminating business to join his old high school friends. Sally Sowell is the newest addition to the Lewis and Clark faculty. She is teaching safe driving. Dennis Gillis had to leave the reunion early in order to make his train and catch up with his circus. He is the top acrobat for Ringling Brothers. Kay Morse, Spokane's notorious divorcee, was present and she is once again the blushing bride. This was her sixth trip to the altar. Pat McCullough was able to attend, though he was only to be in town today. He is a traveling salesman for a leading pencil company. Eddie Simmons is a very well-to-do man. His Casino is one of the most popular night spots in town. Yesterday marked the opening of the new horse hospital. The co-owners are Parker Compau and Ronnie Gordon. Many Spokaneites are looking forward to the coming rodeo, whose star trick rider is Ray Mewes. Jackie Little and Gretchen Winkler are the new house mothers for the Y.W.C.A. Betty Duncan is the only woman steeple jack in the world. She is going from town to town making public appearances.

Huppin Snares Thief

Gene Huppin, Spokane's best private eye, recently made the front page when he caught the long-sought horse thief, Gerald Andrews. Lyla Elfring is one of the newest attractions at the armory. She is wrestling. Dorothy Benson is on her vacation here in Spokane from her job as a marimba player at the extravagant Shamrock hotel in Texas. Many of the children of these class members have Gail Hollister and Marcia Robertson for skating lessons at the arena. Maxine Mathewson, Spokane's leading woman doctor, was able to steal away from her busy office to join the gala event. Ann Livingston is the newly appointed Junior Red Cross director for Spokane county. Perhaps you have heard that new program on the radio, Lois, Crime Photographer. Well, that is none other than Lois Hill.

Mayor Makes Appearance

Guest of honor at the reunion was his honor, Mayor Phil Leigh. Florence Hill was unable to have time enough from her job to come to the reunion. She manages the Crescent Beauty salon. Darrell Lee is the new I.D. checker at the Blue Note Cocktail Lounge. Ronnie Hendricksen and Joe Clumpner were unable to attend because their team was playing a game. They are first and second basemen for the New York Yankees. Lynn Young is the leader of the new uprising of the W.C.T.U. in Spokane. Lois "Georgious Gussie" Womach is in London for a command performance tennis game. Mary Turner is hat check girl at the B.O.F. at night and adviser for the Lewis and Clark Tiger during the day. Bob MacLean is one of the nation's top professional football players. Perhaps some people think these boys are crazy to manufacture curved toothpicks but Carl Anderson, Toshi Yonago, and Philip Dodd are doing quite well at it. The new girls' physical education teacher at North Central is Caryle Pence. Jerry Porter is the manager for the U.S.O. that was recently opened for servicewomen. The co-managers of the new two million dollar horse track are Harry Tanaka, Zeloris Johnson, and James Keith. Norma Fendler has started a new date bureau in Spokane, and it seems to be prospering beautifully.

Ingraham New Principal

At the opening of the reunion the new principal of Lewis and Clark, Bill Ingraham gave a welcoming speech. The newest woman dentist in Spokane, Laura Leath, has recently opened her offices directly across from school. It seems she specializes in high school students. And speaking of new openings, a very exclusive women's lingerie shop has just been opened. The proprietors are Bud Stobie, Neil Caudill and Ken Brown. Perhaps some people don't remember Julie Chilton although they see her often. She's Santa Claus' helper at the Crescent. Many of the children of these former students are ardent admirers of the Sunny Jim Kindergarten television program, but few people know that Dan Kaiser and Bob Schimke are the managers. Christine Runkel seems to be another ever-loving wife and mother. She says her twelve redheads keep her busy but that they really are cheaper by the dozen. Everyone has heard of the famous Rockettes of Radio City in New York, and five of them are the well-remembered Louise Place, Barbara Chase, Patsy Carmen, Marilyn Cockrell, and Corrinne Johnson. In charge of the occupational forces in Russia is Chester Bray. Owner of a dude ranch in Arizona is Barbara Barksdale. The newest heart throb of every high school girl is the famous crooner, Phil Sandberg. The traffic officer on top of the City Ramp for helicopters is Dave Daggett.

Refreshments were served and the end of the reunion sadly drew to a close. Friendships were renewed and made but more than ever everyone was conscious of that old saying: "The roads from Lewis and Clark lead into all walks of life."
